

ExperTox[®] Receives Women's Business Enterprise Certification

Deer Park, TX – August 14, 2009 – ExperTox, a toxicology testing and occupational health services laboratory, received national certification as a Women's Business Enterprise by the Women's Business Enterprise Alliance (WBEA), a regional certifying partner of the Women's Business Enterprise National Council (WBENC).

WBENC's national standard of certification implemented by the WBEA is a meticulous process including an in-depth review of the business and site inspection. The certification process is designed to confirm the business is at least 51% owned, operated and controlled by a woman or women.

By including women-owned businesses among their vendors, corporations and government agencies demonstrate their commitment to fostering diversity and the continued development of their supplier/vendor diversity programs. "The process to become WBE certified is definitely detailed; however, well worth the effort. Our specialized area of expertise improves the health, wellness, morale and safety within organizations, and we look forward to expanding to a new level of serving" stated Loretta Anderson, President of ExperTox.
